DUNDEEL / BRING ME THE MAID COLT

"This colt was a real standout for the team - not only on his stunning appearance but also because of the depth of his pedigree with so much talent standing out on the page. We can't wait to see him furnish further - he will be a headturner in the yard, that's for sure!" - AB

This colt is certainly a stallion prospect of the future, make no mistake! He is by Dundee, the sire of stallions Super Seth and Castelvechio, and out of a multiple Group 2-winning mare in Bring Me the Maid. She raced in black-type company in every one of her nineteen starts, earning nearly $800,000 in prize money, and was effective over sprint trips up to a mile. She was held in such high regard that she was sold as a broodmare for $900,000. Prolific past and present racetrack performers fill the page, including the likes of Group 1 Golden Slipper Stakeswinner, Polar Success, eight-time winner with six in succession, Ain't Seen Nothin' and recent star gallopers performing in elite company, Sambro and Lillemor. This colt is a stunning mover with a real presence about him, that commands your attention. His gorgeous highlighted blonde tail coupled with his athletic and neat physique covers the ground with grace and poise. He has a beautiful head and a kind eye. He is stamped for success, bearing the brand of his sire's home in Arrowfield Stud, and has been prepared to perfection by a vendor that certainly knows how to produce a top-class yearling having consigned Group 1 winners Zoustar, Black Piranha and Once Were Wild, in Kulani Park, Victoria.
