Fancy a trip to Europe? Then take a glance over this stunning grey filly's beautiful Irish and French pedigree and you'll get all the European fix you need! Her sire, Churchill was a champion 2YO, winning five races at age two, as well as being a dual Guineas-winning miler and ending his career a winner of seven races including four Group 1 events. Churchill's oldest Southern Hemisphere progeny are just 2YOs and they have already won and performed in black-type events, whilst his first European crop are firing on all cylinders including plenty of Listed wins and further placings in Group company. The dam, Gabella is a French-bred mare who was a winner from 1650 metres to over 10 furlongs. She was a Listed winner in Australia, as well as obtaining four other wins in France, contested in black-type company. This filly looks a Classic type, enhanced by the fact her first four dams are all winners from a mile to 2400 metres. Her European pedigree has depth and substance and this flows through to her beautiful physique. She is a lovely mover, covering the ground in a strong, fluid motion. She has strength in her neck and shoulder coupled with a stunning head and kind eye.
